Vince Megna : Lap Dancers Don't Take Checks: The Truth About Law, Lawyers and Other Trivialities before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lap Dancers Don't Take Checks: The Truth About Law, Lawyers and Other Trivialities:

Johnny Dark, the oldest CBS page from the David Letterman Show introduces Lap Dancers don't take Checks.

Johnny's cynicism, irreverence and thirst for the opposite sex complements Megna's humorous, edgy, and yes, educational book. Lap Dancers don't take Checks presents Megna's insight about law in an easy to read, illustrative and entertaining way for both non-lawyers and those who wish they were non-lawyers. In 33 chapters, he covers the gamut of legal topics: from avoiding jury duty and using the F word, to ambulance chasing and having sex with a client. The practitioners of law also take hits from Megna. He quips about his own profession including the unethical and outlandish behaviors of fellow lawyers. Even Catholic priests don't escape his notice. Lap Dancers don't take Checks will illuminate you about law while providing food for thought. This fun read is guaranteed to bring a smile to your face ... and a frown to the face of that lawyer who sued you.
